WINTER GUARD ANNOUNCEMENT SCRIPT

WGI Rule 6.6

Color guards are allowed to use music and/or recorded narration as part of their setup process through the house sound system after one (1) minute of the color guard's interval time. If a color guard chooses to use music or recorded narration, they must communicate this to the Timing and Penalty judge. The color guard is responsible for any music direction required at the sound table, which must be given in person.

Take all cues for announcing from the T&P judge. The T&P judge will point to the announcer to cue each part of the script.

[CUE FROM T&P JUDGE]

As the unit enters the floor:

Please welcome our next performing group in the Scholastic - Middle School class, the Park Middle School Color Guard from Park Middle School in Antioch, California.

TWO OPTIONS HERE:

- Option 1: At 1:30 (for Open, National A, Regional A, & Middle School class) or at 2:00 (for World class), the announcement will be made
- Option 2: An instructor or designated individual stands near the sound table and indicates to the T&P judge when to make the announcement.

INDICATE WHICH OPTION YOU ARE CHOOSING WHEN YOU ARE GREETED BY THE T&P JUDGE PRIOR TO YOUR PERFORMANCE.
